FRIDAY, MAY 28, 1858. sons employed by the government, even the bund le laborers in the navy yard, are threatened with internated and honored by the people of Tennessee and of the S ath. His opinions of the Kansas imbroglio are uninfluer d by any expectation of political preferm to at their hands. They are given freely, feirly, and honerds, and may be relied upon as those of an univarial observer of all that has occurred in Kansas. While in Memphis a few days he was at tessed by a number of his old contucted, requiring an exposition of his views upon the past, present and future of Kansas. The following past, present and future of Kansas. The following a his reply.
